Kenneth Gorzycki Named Director of Agronomy at Horseshoe Bay Resort

Horseshoe Bay, TX – January 14, 2009 – Horseshoe Bay Resort is pleased to announce Kenneth Gorzycki as its director of agronomy. Gorzycki will oversee course conditions for the resort's three Robert Trent Jones, Sr. courses: Slick Rock, Ram Rock, and Apple Rock; Whitewater, the resort's 18-hole Bermuda grass putting course; and Summit Rock, a Jack Nicklaus Signature Course currently under development.

A seasoned industry veteran and Texas native, Gorzycki has spent the past 30 years managing golf course and ground maintenance for Dallas-based ClubCorp, which owns or operates nearly 170 private clubs. He was most recently the director of golf course maintenance at Barton Creek Club & Resort in Austin, Texas.

"It is with great pleasure that we welcome Ken to our resort management team," said G. Michael Thomas, president and COO of Horseshoe Bay Resort. "We are confident that his expertise will help us to provide the premier playing conditions our members and guests have come to expect from Horseshoe Bay Resort."

Gorzycki is a certified golf course superintendent by the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America, and is also certified by the state of Texas as a restricted pesticide applicator. He currently holds the following memberships: United States Golf Association, United States Golf Association Green Section Committee, Texas Turfgrass Association, Central Texas Golf Course Superintendents Association, Lone Star Golf Course Superintendents Association and Golf Course Superintendents Association of America. Gorzycki received his Bachelor of Science in Agronomy from Texas A&M University, College Station.

Horseshoe Bay Resort is entering the New Year with top golf honors for Ram Rock, infamously known as the "challenger." Golfweek magazine named the Robert Trent Jones, Sr. course among the "Best Resort Courses of 2009," while the PGA Professionals' Guide to Travel named it to the list of "Favorite Courses Over $100" in the South/Central region.
