Tennis Superstar Anna Kournikova to Conduct Children's Clinic at the Nation's Only Kids' Courts

First-Ever Kid-Sized Tennis Courts at Horseshoe Bay Resort

- WHAT: Tennis pro Anna Kournikova will conduct a tennis clinic for kids on the first child-friendly tennis courts in the country to help grow the sport among America's younger generation.
- VISUAL: After being recognized as an Honorary Texan, Anna Kournikova will hit the scaled-down courts for a clinic followed by a 30-minute tennis exhibition where 12 children will share the court with Kournikova on the new Andy Roddick USTA Kids' Courts at Horseshoe Bay Resort.
- WHEN: Saturday, November 3, 2007 at 10:00 a.m.
- WHERE: Whitewater Tennis Center at Horseshoe Bay Resort
500 Horseshoe Bay Blvd.
Horseshoe Bay, TX 78657
- WHY: Unveiled earlier this summer, the United States Tennis Association youth initiative focuses on scaling tennis down to the size and abilities of young players. A 36-foot court is used by children ages eight and under and the 60-foot courts are for children ages ten and under. The goal of this unprecedented program is to increase the retention and number of players between the ages of five and 10.
